The Sword Of The Spirit

"What Is The church Of Christ? (#6)"

In our last article, we began studying about Scriptural worship as is described in the New Testament. We noted in the last article that Scriptural worship demands that we worship God with our focus on things spiritual, and worship in connection with the truth (Jn. 4:24; I Pet. 4:11; Col. 3:17)! God seeks these kinds of people to worship Him (Jn. 4:23).

Yet, is it up to man to decide what constitutes Scriptural worship? By no means! A study of the Scriptures reveals that God demands certain acts to be done in our worship to Him. It is not left up to us to worship God any way we please (Jer. 10:23)! In fact, God has never left man to worship as he sees fit, but has always specified what constitutes acceptable worship. This has been true beginning with Cain and Abel (Gen. 4:1-11), and it is true today!

We live under the New Covenant; and since this is true, we see that worship to God includes preaching the gospel, partaking of the Lord's Supper, giving of our means, praying, and singing every first day of the week (Acts 2:42; Eph. 5:19; Acts 20:7; I Cor. 16:1-2). These acts of worship to God were done in the first century, and the church of Christ continues to worship in this manner.

Does the church you attend worship the way the Bible teaches? Examine the Scriptures and compare what you do with what God has specified. (To Be Continued...)
